The Gerstenschlager Cemetery is located about 8 miles west of Pinckneyville and a half mile south of route 154, in Section 23, Township 5-4. The cemetery is beside an all weather road and has been left undisturbed by nearby strip mining.

The Gerstenschlager Cemetery was founded by Balthasar Gerstenschlager in the early 1840's and is listed as pioneer cemetery in the Mormon records in Salt Lake City, Utah.

No official record of the cemetery can be found , all of the information about it has been handed down by relatives, and many graves are unmarked. The cemetery, was believed started when a person who was a farm hand or a drifter working on the Gerstenschlager farm died.

Betty Hasty, a descendant of the Gerstenschlager family, and her husband Melvin, maintain the cemetery now and have provided the information used here. They may be reached at 210 S. Greenwood Avenue, Du Quoin.

The reading of the cemetery began in the south end of each row moving north, with the rows being read from west to east
